

Release of Liability Form for Practical Entry,

I, _____, affirm that in entering the Baby Bonanza onesie contest I have used fabric only markers or paints. I further affirm that there are no additional elements that are deemed out of the scope of allowed applications to the designing of the onesies.

I hereby release the Baby Bonanza, their respective officers, directors, employees, agents and affiliates, and any other person, or entity related to the Baby Bonanza event in any form of any liability it may have relating to my design and application to the onesie.

I hereby release to Baby Bonanza, the design to be used for promotional purposes including photography, video and other mediums where applicable.

It is further understood that all onesies will be donated to Presbyterian Hospital's newborn/infant ward.
