Yuriana “Yudi” Atayde was born and raised in Chicago, IL until she relocated to Albuquerque, NM in 2005 with her family. She currently attends the University of New Mexico working towards a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications with a concentration in Public Relations and a Minor in Chicano Studies. Yudi obtains prior experience working with wedding planners, event planners, producers and organizations in coordinating memorable events. She also obtains five years of sales experience in retail, non-profit and advertisements. For her down time she loves to be busy! Yudi enjoys reading, painting, running and playing with her two rescue dogs. She also enjoys entertaining family and friends or watching her boyfriend play some intense soccer.
